* On March 8, 2024, the Company was informed that Next.e.GO Mobile SE, the issuer of corporate bonds DE000A351MK1, announced its application for insolvency proceedings with the District Court of Aachen. The court opened these proceedings on May 1, 2024, due to insolvency and over-indebtedness.

On May 2, 2024, the insolvency administrator notified the court of asset insufficiency. Further details can be found at <https://neu.insolvenzbekanntmachungen.de/ap/suche.jsf>.

Although the bonds are secured by a pledge on the shares of Next.e.GO B.V., these shares are not part of the insolvency estate and are worthless, as Next.e.GO B.V. has also filed for insolvency.

Consequently, the Company assessed the fair value of DE000A351MK1 at zero. The Kuma tokens (#29 - 48 issued on the Ethereum network) remain in circulation but their value is affected by the underlying bonds. The Company will assist token holders in recovery steps through the insolvency proceedings of Next.e.GO Mobile SE.
